Father Lee Hutchison

As many of you know we have scheduled 2 parish meetings in June. The first on June 7th and the second on June 14th. The original purpose was to look at how we moved through the pandemic and where we go in the future as a congregation. However we will now include time to discuss the executive boards letter found below. Please read the letter and feel free to share your thoughts at these upcoming meetings.

THE EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF VIRGINIA

Executive Board Initiates Dialogue on Reparations

The Executive Board met yesterday in a special meeting to debrief on the April 24 Special Convention to Adopt the Budget. The Board considered how the Diocese might develop a process for addressing Resolution BR-4, which was presented in the closing minutes of Convention and was defeated. The resolution proposed to allocate $1,000,000 from diocesan investment assets to the income category and add a new line item for "Reparations and Undoing White Supremacy." The Executive Board reached consensus that the issue of reparations will be on the agenda for its June meeting.

"The Executive Board recognizes the seriousness of the request and the necessity of discussing the issue," said Board member Alda White. "Reparations is not an easy conversation. Nor is it a short conversation. It is a process. While the Board is unsure of what shape our work will take on this issue, we are committed to taking it on, prayerfully and deliberately."

Board members will employ a variety of resources, including the Diocese's online library of racial justice resources, to develop a basic and common understanding of the issues and concepts around reparations. "Having a common understanding of the subject matter is the beginning of our process," Ms. White added.

Also at yesterday's meeting, the Board discussed improvements to the Convention process and procedures, emphasizing ways to promote trust, transparency and improved communication with churches, clergy and delegates.

The Board also created two subgroups – one to study diocesan assets and the other to study campus ministry. The work of each subgroup will help to inform the development of the 2022 budget.

The Board's Working Group on Budget will begin meeting in June to develop a budget forecast for 2022. Details on how to submit budget requests will be provided by May 31.

The Board will also be considering revisions to the procedural Rules of Order for Convention to improve clarity and consistency.

The Executive Board meets again on June 26 to continue this important work.

Fr. Lee

PENTECOST - A Moving and Impactful Holy Spirit!

Hello St. Martin's Family,

I was privileged to hear 2 messages yesterday as it relates to Pentecost, One from Brother John Ogle, and the 2nd from Bishop Michael Curry. Both messages reminded Me that even though we have been through a viral pandemic that we need to address a 2nd pandemic that had NOT occurred to me, A PANDEMIC OF THE HUMAN SPIRIT. Bishop Michael shared that the self-centeredness in our society today is the root cause of war, division in our society and individual hurt. I was reminded that we have a CURE. LOVE is the cure! The Love of Jesus who died on the cross to save us can help us heal spiritually and physically. Love one another as Jesus loved us, there is HOPE for each of us, our church, our country, and all mankind. Brother John reminded us that this is NOT a time for the church to retreat or turn inward but to reach out to spread God's good news. I know sometimes I feel frustrated but as I listened to Bishop Michael, he reminded me that the HOLY SPIRIT can revitalize our soul. SOOO in a time where we have seen lots on judging one another and a rejection of one another's ideas that can cause great pain. I am reminded we are not victims of the times we live. The future is NOT an inevitable fate that awaits us, we are people of Faith. I am prepared to make room in my heart for you and if make room in your heart for me, WE CAN ALL WIN! I must say as I felt the Holy Spirit working in me yesterday, I am encouraged as we move forward into 2021 because I know in my heart GOD'S LOVE WILL MAKE A WAY!

WE WILL FIND GOD'S WAY IN OUR LIFE WITH SOME HELP FROM THE HOLY SPIRIT. 😊

Announcing a St. Martin's Celebration!!!

Save the DATE: July 10 and 11, 2021

We will be having a weekend "GIVING THANKS CELEBRATION!"
We hope that as St Martins begins to return to a regular worship service, our families will join together in July in fellowship to CELEBRATE and GIVE THANKS for that which we all survived in 2020 and ask for God's Blessings as we look to the future!

Stay tune for more info as the planning progresses.
And be sure to RSVP on the sign up sheets or by emailing the church!

For now our plans include:

celebrate!

Saturday, evening, July 10, 7p -9p

"GIVE THANKS GATHERING"

Join us to enjoy dessert and fellowship, to include a brownie and ice cream bar with all the trimmings!
We will include some special thanks and a bonfire to "burn some symbolic items and to "Say good by to 2020"!

Sunday July 11, 11:30 am - 1:30 pm

"SUNDAY FUN DAY 2021" following our celebratory worship services!

Barbecue lunch INSIDE and OUTSIDE the parish hall!

Special music (band)

Water slide and other fun outdoor happenings for kids of ALL ages!

These celebrations are being planned in a very "socially aware" manner.

***** PLEASE NOTE AND SIGN UP TO GET A T-SHIRT to commemorate the weekend!
We want to wear them to church on Sunday!!!*****

To volunteer to help, please contact Betsy Crowell, Karen Hood, Nancy Greenwood or Rick Gibbs.

Funeral of Dodie and Sam Corpening
on May 22, 2021

Father Lee officiated.
Condolences to their daughters

The ECW met in person in the parish hall on May 25th with 11 women in attendance. We were all excited to actually see each other's smiling faces. Under discussion was fund raising, the dispensation of funds and future speakers in the fall.

The next get-together will be on Tuesday June 15th at 5.30pm when we will show the DVD of Sight and Sound Theater's live production of "Ruth" from Lancaster, PA. Everyone in the congregation is invited (men too!!) Please bring your dinner.

June 30th is the last chance to buy packs of St. Martin's notecards from a table in the hallway. They are $5 for a pack containing 5 notecards. Please put cash or check, payable to St. Martin's with "ECW notecards" on the memo line, in the box provided. The ECW gives a grateful thank you to all parishioners who have supported the ECW in this way.

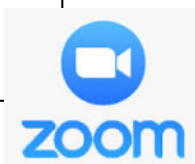

If you are a High School graduate who is a communicant of the Episcopal Church and who is planning to further your education, you may apply for a scholarship from the ECW of the Diocese of Virginia. Application forms can be found on the bulletin board.

UTO coordinator for the ECW Kim Shook says that donations are still accepted and is hopeful to get all donations by mid June.

Topic: St Martin's Happy Hour
Time: every Thursday at 5:30 pm

St. Martin's Happy Hour

Big Thank You to Rick Fowler for hosting the Happy Hour all this time.

It is always a happy time when we see our Church friends.

Big Thank You to Jackie Bitler for volunteering to give it a try but asking for patience since she has more confidence in a piano/organ than her computer.

Let's chat a while ..... every Thursday!
The meeting starts at 5:30 pm (and will be cut off by the computer after 40 minutes).
In those 40 minutes you can join anytime.

If you have any question call Jackie

June is PTSD awareness month

PTSD (post traumatic stress disorder) is a mental health problem that some people develop after experiencing or witnessing a life-threatening event. Examples include: combat, a natural disaster, a car accident, sexual assault. The COVID 19 pandemic has also produced PTSD in front line workers (health care) or even families watching a loved one suffer or die over the last year.

- Serious accidents, like a car wreck
- Natural disasters, like a fire, tornado, hurricane, flood, or earthquake
- Terrorist attacks

A traumatic event could be something that happened to you, or something you saw happen to someone else. Seeing the effects of a horrible or violent event can also be traumatic — for example, being a first responder after a terrorist attack or healthcare workers during surges of the COVID pandemic.

It's normal to relive the difficult memories, have anxiety, or have trouble sleeping after any of these events. Initially, it may be hard to do activities of normal living, like going to work, school, or spending time with people you care about. However, most people start to feel better after a few weeks or months. If it's been longer than a few months and you're still having symptoms, you may have PTSD.

PTSD symptoms may start later on, or they may come and go over time.

Any experience that threatens your life or someone else's can be traumatic and cause PTSD. Types of traumatic events that can cause PTSD include:

- Combat and other military experiences
- Sexual or physical assault
- Learning about the violent or accidental death or injury of a loved one
- Child sexual or physical abuse

PTSD symptoms may not be the same for everyone. Reliving memories of the event can occur at any time, they can feel very scary and real and are referred to as a flashback. You may have nightmares. Something that reminds you of the event can trigger a flashback such as hearing a car backfire or seeing a horrific event on the news. Avoiding situations or people that remind you of an event may be helpful. For example, someone who was assaulted on the bus might avoid taking public transportation. Staying busy or occupied may sometimes help.

Some symptoms of PTSD may include:

- Having more negative thoughts and feelings than before

fact sheets on next 2 pages

- You might be sad or numb and lose interest in things you used to enjoy
- You may feel that the world is dangerous and you can't trust anyone
- It may be hard for you to feel or express happiness, or other positive emotions
- You may feel guilt or shame about the traumatic event itself wishing you could have done more to help.
- You may feel jittery or jumpy, easily startled
- You might have trouble sleeping or concentrating
- You may suddenly get angry and irritable
- You may start smoking, abusing drugs and alcohol, or driving aggressively

Diagnoses of PTSD is made after evaluation by a mental health provider. Questions asked may include your traumatic event, your symptoms and other problems you may have.

Your therapist or doctor will start by talking with you about your PTSD symptoms and your treatment options. Once you've chosen a type of treatment, he will explain the treatment plan, how it will help you feel better, and why it works. Remember, you can always ask questions about your treatment. Both trauma-focused psychotherapies and medication are proven to treat PTSD

For caregivers, learning about PTSD helps you to understand what your loved one is experiencing. It will also be helpful to you to have a support network of family, friends and healthcare providers. Below are some resources for help. These are confidential hotlines.

Crisis Resources:

- The National Suicide Prevention Lifeline is a 24-hour hotline for anyone in emotional distress: 1-800-273-TALK (8255). There is also an online Lifeline Chat available from 5 pm to 1 am EST, weekdays.
- The Veterans Crisis Line connects Veterans in crisis and their families and friends with VA responders through a 24/7 hotline: 1-800-273-TALK (8255), PRESS 1. There is also a 24/7 online Confidential Veterans Chat or text message support at 838255.
- The National Domestic Violence Hotline offers 24/7 anonymous access to shelters and domestic violence programs as well as legal advocacy, public education, and training: 1-800-799-SAFE (7233) or 1-800-787-3224 (TTY).
- The National Sexual Assault Hotline operated by RAINN (Rape, Abuse & Incest National Network) is a 24/7 resource to link victims to counseling and legal advice: 1-800-656-HOPE (4673). There is also a National Sexual Assault Online Hotline for messaging.
- The National Child Abuse Hotline is a 24/7 resource you can contact if you suspect a child is being abused, if you fear you might hurt your child, or if you have been abused: 1-800-4-A-CHILD (422-4453).

All Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Centers provide PTSD treatment, and many locations around the county offer specialized PTSD programs.

It was so good to see that so many members of our congregation have received their COVID vaccine. We look forward to worshipping again as a congregation singing hymns and praising God for taking us safely through this pandemic so far. We must continue to be vigilant, practicing the healthy measures used as we see the number of infections and hospitalizations continue to decrease. Stay safe and well hydrated through these warm months!

Get to know your brothers and sisters in Christ

Mike and Kim Shook are very active members. Their middle name must be 'volunteer'. They are tellers and leaders in the St Martin's project. Kim is an incredible baker and was in charge of the (very successful) bake table at the ECW bazaars. Mike made many incredible BBQ portions as a fundraiser for the church. And those are only a few things.

Mike

Q: Are you a cradle Episcopalian?

A: I was raised Roman Catholic. When Kim (a cradle Episcopalian) and I were courting, we went through marriage preparation sessions at Holy Comforter Episcopal here in Richmond. As we talked through our life plans, we agreed to raise our children in the Episcopal tradition. Our wedding was co-celebrated with Episcopal and Catholic priests officiating. After Jessica was born we got more serious about our church attendance and became regulars at the Episcopal churches near us as we moved with my jobs. I realized that I had more in common with the beliefs and traditions of the Episcopal Church than with the catechism of the Catholic Church. I was formally received in the Episcopal Church in 1992 at St. Paul's in Salem, VA.

Q: Have you always lived in the Richmond area?

A: I was born here, back in that very brief period when there were 49 stars on the flag. I lived here through high school, lived in Maryland for my first year of college and returned home. Kim and I moved away to Northern VA in the mid 1980's, and from there to Charlottesville for my MBA, then Batesville IN, Salem, VA, and back here.

Q: How did you find St. Martin's?

A: We visited for Midnight Services one year and were really touched by the fellowship and obvious caring in the congregation. When we were finally ready to transfer our membership a few months later, St. Martin's was an obvious choice.

Q: What would you like your church friends to know about you, your family, your occupation, hobbies etc?

A: Professional-- After 15 years in Fortune 500s I accepted an offer to come to Richmond to bring some private sector practices to state government management. It was to be a three year assignment. That was 27 years ago. I now oversee 1/3 of the state budget and advise the administration on how best to allocate funding and track results.

Personal -- Kim and I met doing local theater, and we each sporadically performed over the next ten years or so. Kim and I love to experience new and different dining experiences and have been known to drive hundreds of miles just for a specific meal. For fun, I am pretty good at making barbecue, and I travel the central Atlantic states on weekends judging at BBQ competitions throughout the year. I love stargazing and struggling with my veggie garden. Mostly, I enjoy spending time doing anything with Kim and Jessica.

Get to know...

Q: Are you a cradle Episcopalian?

A: Yes. I was baptized at St. George's Episcopal in Arlington VA and confirmed at Emmanuel-On-The-Hill Episcopal Church at the Virginia Theological Seminary in Alexandria VA.

Q: Have you always lived in the Richmond area?

A: No. I was born in Washington DC and grew up mostly in Northern VA. I came to Richmond in 1978 to attend VCU. I met Mike here and we married at Holy Comforter on Staples Mill Road in 1982. Jessica was born at Henrico Drs. in 1984. We've lived in Northern VA, Charlottesville, Batesville IN, Salem VA, and then back here.

Q: How did you find St. Martin's?

A: Drove past the sign on Broad for years and finally went one Christmas eve when we left the house too late to drive over to Emanuel where we'd been attending on and off. Upon leaving, we looked at one another and said, "I think we've found our church". The folks at St. Martin's were so warm and welcoming.

Q: What would you like your church friends to know about you, your family, your occupation, hobbies etc?

A: My favorite things in the world are travel, cooking and trying out new recipes. I've done recipe testing for a published cookbook. My favorite of all the places that I've ever traveled is England. When we were there in 2011, I felt more "at home" than anywhere I've ever been (including here). I am a huge fan of The Wizard of Oz – not just the movie, but also the series of books – and collect all things "Oz".

Graduate Celebration

plans have not been finalized yet because the young people have such busy schedules. Please stay tuned and watch the weeklies carefully.

The Wish

When did we learn this wish?
Before becoming human?
Before Adam and Eve?
Hominids, dragging stones into circles, to block the wind, did we
Lift eyes to guardian spirits?
Or to bats, eagles, butterflies?
Not yet sapient, could we wonder?

After Eden,
Who imagined the images
We carved and painted?
Majesties, with wings and arms,
Queens of freedom, princes of power; protectors.
Why does "Nike" sound like "Michael?"

Was Icarus real;
Leaping, flapping, soaring, falling?
Brothers on dunes,
Footprints in moon dust,
losses and triumphs
follow the wish.

Did diggers in earth
Discovering ore, and oil
Guess God had buried
In depths of dirt, secrets of building ships
That allow us, at last,
to fly
a little lower than the angels?

- Patsy Anne Bickerstaff

Congratulations!

We rejoice with Madeline and Larry Lai about the safe arrival of daughter Charlotte on May 8, 2021.

Maddi and Larry had joined us several times when we had parking lot services last fall. Unfortunately more in-person services came to a screeching hold after that.

A glorious Day

Sunday May 30 ...

... was the day the seat restricting tapes came down after the service. Starting next Sunday our services will feel almost normal again.
