Altar verses Pulpit

The inside of a church offers much information as to what happens inside. The color of altar hangings, symbols on the walls or windows and fixtures all offer clues to what the people believe. This is true when it comes to the relative size of the altar and pulpit.

The first Christians divided their worship into two parts. The first part of the service focused on reading from scripture. The second focused on the sacrament of communion. Episcopalians still divide their service into 2 parts as do other "liturgical churches". The first part of our worship focuses on readings from the Bible. A reading from the Old Testament, the book of acts is used during the Easter season, followed by a psalm, a reading from the New Testament and finally a reading from one of the four Gospels. A sermon follows focused on the scripture reading followed by a proclamation of our faith in the creed and lastly prayers for our community. Our book of common prayer suggests the use of the pulpit as the place from which to proclaim the word and preach. Our church uses a lectern for the bible readings and the Gospel is read from the aisle.

The second part of our service focuses on communion. The leader leads the service with the Eucharistic prayer, prayed from the altar. The Eucharistic prayer focuses on the offering of the life of Christ for our salvation. The Lord's prayer is said and then a piece of bread is broken at the altar to remind the congregation of the body of Jesus being broken for our salvation. Bread is then offered to the congregation with the words "The gifts of God for the people of God, take these in remembrance that Christ died for you and feed on him in your hearts with thanksgiving."

Some episcopal churches have a large elevated pulpit as they emphasize a focus on the words of the Bible. Others have a large altar and use bells, candles vestments and incense to focus on the sacrifice of Christ. As far as furnishings go Saint Martins has an emphasis on both parts of the service.

An updated Picture Directory to proof will be laying out in the Parish Hall soon. Look for the happy-face balloon.

Thank you very much for your help!

The directory is for members and friends. If you are new, please don't be shy to give us your information to add you to it.

Changes can always be made. Please email changes to the Cloak address: stmartinscloak@gmail.com Christa is happy to take a new photo of you or you can send a digital one to the above email. Children grow so quickly. It would be nice to change especially those.

Special note to parents of children who have graduated and are out of the house: We would like their college addresses and emails so they still feel part of their church family.

If your youth would like to receive church news, we would like their email addresses also.

Words from the Wardens

Good Day St. Martin's Family,

We wanted to take a minute to share our Joy of seeing so many folks at our EASTER Celebration, reminded us of old times. Relationships are so important in our lives and we have had a couple years where seeing each other has been difficult. How cool was it a week later, a Fish Fry and see so many members of our parish family and be able to catch up on what's going on in each others lives.

Thanks be to God. We have a number of events planned for our church family.

- Bible Study, beginning April 25 at 10 am on Tuesday and 7 pm on Wednesday where we will be studying the book of Nehemiah.
- Saturday June 10 6:05 pm St.Martin's Night at The Diamond. Richmond Flying Squirrels, Have Fun Go Nuts!
- First Wednesday after the 10 am service, join us for refreshments and fellowship after the 10 am service.
- 2 more Yoga Stretch on Thursday May 4 + 11 at 1:30 pm before the summer break, YOU are welcome, just sign up.
- Wine Tasting - Friday, July 14th (details to follow)

You can see we have a lot going on and we shared with Father Lee that we would like to see Joy and Fun throughout the year. Should you have ideas how to have Fun and Joy reach out to Father Lee or one of us and we would be happy to work out the details.

We close wishing a Happy and Blessed Easter Season!

Your Warden's,
Nancye and Rick

Words from Rev. Dr. Sandra Levy-Mix

"The Lives We Actually Have: A Book to Recommend"

Well Folks, this Cloak piece will be a little different from my usual ones. This is about a book I received as a gift recently—one I'm dipping into—and one I'd like to recommend for your consideration. But first, a little background story.

A very dear friend of mine, someone I've been close to for decades and who lives in Ohio, surprised me by sending me this book a week or so back. Over the years Karen and I have shared so much—ups and downs of life, joys and sorrows that visit all of us from time to time. A fellow psychologist, she's also a devout Christian of the Episcopal variety. Taking trips together over the years (including a European Viking ship tour), visiting each others' homes. In fact, she was just here visiting us this past week.

Well, anyway—to the book. The complete title and authors are The Lives We Actually Have: 100 Blessings for Imperfect Days, by Kate Bowler and Jessica Richie. Just out this year (2023) and published by Convergent Books, an imprint of Random House. In the Introduction to this work, one of the authors says the following:

... Blessings put our spiritual house in order, even when our circumstances are entirely out of order. . . When I bless the actual days I am living, I suddenly find I have a great deal more to say that is honest. I am mourning. I am bored. I am exhausted. I am apathetic. I discover that I am freed from the need to declare everything #blessed. Good or bad, I don't have to wait to say something spiritually true. I can simply bless it all instead. (Pg. xix)

In fact, their book is divided into sections, allowing the reader to thumb through and find the best match for their current mood; Bless this ordinary life; Bless this tired life; Bless this lovely life; Bless this grief-stricken life; Bless this overwhelming life; Bless this painful life; Bless this garbage life; Bless the lives of others; Bless this beautiful, limited life; Bless this holy life.

So as you can see, those sections pretty much cover the waterfront of our lives as we actually have them. And then each of the sections is further divided into 10 two-page short meditations, or bible verses or quotes from literature that aid in spiritual reflection and honest dealings with our days. Let me end this review with lifting a quote from the first two-page meditation on "this ordinary day." (See the photos for the book cover and this two-page sample to give you a flavor of this book's charm.

Lord, here I am.

How strange it is/ that some days feel like hurricanes/ and others like glassy seas/ and others like nothing much at all.

Ordinarily, I might not think of you at all.

Except, if you don't mind,/let me notice you.

Show up in the small necessities/ and everyday graces...

Be the reason I feel loved/when I catch my own reflection/or feel my own self-loathing/fluttering in my stomach.

Calm my mind,/life my spirit,/make this dumb, ordinary day/ my prayer of thanks. (Pp 2-3)

So I say "Amen Lord". I couldn't recommend this book to you more! Blessings on you all dear St. Martin's folks.

First Wednesday of the Month

- Wednesday April 5th

Those who like to come to this weekly service enjoy some fellowship on the first Wednesday of the month. Everybody is looking forward to this.

Finance Committee Report

by Garland Harwood

Thanks to the generous support of our members, St Martin's finished the 1st Quarter of 2023 in excellent financial position. Our income exceeded budget by $17,676 and expenses exceeded budget by $2,164 all of which is attributed to seasonal fuel costs to heat our buildings.

Budget numbers aside, our more important bottom line shows a profit of $9,174 versus the bleak picture we were looking at when the budget was finalized in January.

Thanks again to all of you for sharing your time, talents and treasure to make St. Martin's the wonderful place it is!

Financial Highlights 2023	end of previous month	MTD March	YTD end of March
Income	$54,079.04	$13,912.05	$67,991.09
Expenses	-$40,276.82	-$18,540.34	-$58,817.16
Gain or Loss	$13,802.22	-$4,628.29	$9,173.93

Get to know your brothers and sisters in Christ

Thank you to Jim and Mary Moss for introducing themselves to us this month. Great to have you in the St. Martin's family.

Q: Are you a cradle Episcopalian?

A: No. Jim was raised in the Southern Baptist tradition and Mary was raised Roman Catholic. We were members of a United Methodist church for 25 year prior to joining St. Martins.

Q: Have you always lived in the Richmond area?

A: Jim was born in Richmond; lived in Blacksburg while attending college. Mary was born in Seattle, WA and lived in several states prior to moving to Northern VA in upper elementary school. She met Jim in Blacksburg, and after graduation, they were married, moved to Winston-Salem, NC for a few months prior to settling in Richmond (since 1978).

Q: How did you find St. Martin's?

A: Mary actually worked in the church office at one time 20 or so years ago! We have family members and friends who have been long-time members and when we decided to seek out a new church home, we decided St. Martins was a great fit.

Q: What would you like your church friends to know about you, your family, your occupation, hobbies etc

A: We have a son who lives with us in Richmond and a daughter, son-in-law and granddaughter who live in Florida. Mary is a writer and published author, speaker and writing coach. Jim enjoys semi-retirement as a ride-share driver, and working as a movie extra in several productions. They both enjoy music and concerts and are huge history buffs. They are both active community volunteers in various capacities.

Why do Episcopalians ...

Thursday May 18 is ASCENSION DAY! We commemorate Jesus Christ's ascension into heaven by celebrating this day, which occurs on the Thursday, which is 40 (or 39) days after Easter.

Three days after his crucifixion Jesus emerged victorious over death from the tomb. For the next 40 days He taught and ministered to His disciples in what must have been an intensely powerful experience, preparing them for His Ascension into heaven.

The ascension is important to Christians because: It shows that Jesus really had overcome death – he wasn't just resurrected to die again, but to live forever.

Ascension Day prayer: The ascension is important to Christians because: It shows that Jesus really had overcome death – he wasn't just resurrected to die again, but to live forever. AMEN

EYC Update - by Sallie Bright

Thank you for your donations to the Easter Egg Hunt. And thank you to the adults who came to help the youth fold Palm Crosses and stuff plastic eggs on the Friday evening before Palm Sunday. On Easter morning at 9:00 a.m., the youth came and hid the plastic eggs for the elementary age children. Thank you Kerry and Melinda for providing and hiding the eggs for the Pre-K children. It was truly a joyful Easter morning.

Our EYC meetings in May are the 7th and 21st right after our 10:00 a.m. service.

Don't miss it!

Participants comments to the editor:

--- Ever since I did THE DEVIL'S ARITHMETIC by Jane Yolen with my 8th graders while teaching, I have wanted to participate in a Seder meal. This year, I finally got the chance, and I threw myself into it. What a learning experience! I have a dear Jewish friend who held her Seder in her home last night. Being able to share our Seder with her was such a joy! It brought us closer together. Last Friday night, I visited her synagogue online, and her rabbi spoke on the Seder. I have invited her to our beautiful Easter Vigil online. I hope we make the Seder meal an annual thing! Thank you, St Martin's, for making it happen! --- First Seder meal, I loved the ceremony and how it connected us to Jesus. Loved the family being at 1 table. Something special. Thank you. --- Last night was my first Seder and I was so excited to be a part of such a spiritual event. Thank you so much for such a beautiful table setting, it was breathtaking! Father Lee, and everyone involved in the organizing of the Seder meal, thank you! I vote to make this an annual event at St. Martins. --- Thanks so much for the work and care that went into preparing this Seder Meal for us. Although I had attended discussions about the meal, it was so nice and meaningful to experience firsthand and even more so for our Church Family to participate in this together. I agree with all the comments and certainly feel we should make this an annual celebration! --- My wife and I thoroughly enjoyed the Seder dinner and think it's a great addition to holy week. We attended one at another church about ten years ago. It was similar from what we remember. It really adds meaning to the roots of our faith passed on from the Hebrew traditions. We hope this will become a new tradition and even have a few friends who said they'd like to come.

Easy Recipes for Potlucks and Coffee Hours

- Christa Burr

Since James and I became members in 2008 we have enjoyed great potlucks and coffee hours in our Parish Hall. So often have I heard somebody ask somebody else for a recipe.

In honor of this year's 60th Anniversary of our church we would like to collect those recipes in a little (homemade) booklet.

To ensure plenty of time for this project, please, send your recipe soon to: cloak@saintmartinschurch.org

When you select the recipe you want to submit, please think about the theme of this cookbook and note if ... it is GF (gluten free) / vegetarian / vegan. We want to be mindful of those with these health problems!

ECW Update

- Christa Burr

I am not the president any longer but I would like to schedule a meeting at the usual time on Saturday May 13 at 9 am. My suggestion is that you bring a dish to share made with a recipe for "St. Martin's Potluck cookbook". Together we can enjoy a little brunch.

Afterwards we can do the promised glass edging lesson!
Please bring a simple glass, bottle or bowl (no Pyrex). I will bring everything else. To know how much to bring, please sign up on the board in the hallway.

Parish Nurse by Betty Horne

May is Asthma and Allergy awareness month

For those of you who suffer each year from allergies and asthma, your troubles probably began earlier this year due to a mild winter and early spring. Many of you managed with the help of allergy medicines. The following are some information and statistics about these conditions.

What Is Asthma?

- Asthma is a long-term disease that causes inflammation and swelling of the airways. This results in narrowing of the airways that carry air from the nose and mouth to the lungs.
- Symptoms include trouble breathing (shortness of breath), wheezing, coughing, and tightness or pain in the chest.
- Symptoms can be triggered differently for different people. e.g. dust or pet dander, certain foods, perfumes or exercise are among common triggers. These can lead to a medical emergency or even death.
- There is no cure for asthma, but with appropriate treatment, episodes can be limited and you can have a better quality of life.

Approximately 26 million people suffer from asthma in the U.S. It is more prevalent in Black adults, female adults and is the leading chronic disease in children. Asthma is more common in male children than female children. According to the Centers for Disease Control (CDC), asthma attacks have decreased over the last 2 decades. Even though asthma can be controlled, approximately 50% of children with asthma have uncontrolled asthma.

Treatment

Your doctor will discuss with you a plan for treating your asthma. This will include medication and a plan to avoid your triggers for asthma. This should also include when and how to treat your symptoms or if you need emergent care.

What Is an Allergy?

- An allergy is when your immune system reacts to a foreign substance, called an allergen. It could be something you eat, inhale into your lungs, inject into your body, or touch.
- An allergic reaction can cause coughing, sneezing, hives, rashes, itchy eyes, a runny nose, and a scratchy throat. In severe cases, it can cause low blood pressure, breathing trouble, asthma attacks, and even death if not treated promptly.
- There is no cure for allergies. You can manage allergies with prevention and treatment. Allergies are among the country's most common, but overlooked diseases.

ALLERGY

Approximately 50 million people in the U.S. complain of allergies each year and is the 6th leading cause of chronic illness in our country.

- Approximately 90,000 children visit the emergency room due to anaphylaxis from food allergies.
- Indoor and outdoor allergies can lead to sinus swelling/pain, itchy/watery eyes, nasal congestion, and sneezing.
- Many people with allergies often have more than one type of allergy.
- The most common indoor/outdoor allergy triggers are: tree pollen, grass pollen, weed pollen, mold spores, dust mites, cockroaches, cat and dog dander, and rodent urine
- Skin allergies include eczema, hives and contact allergies-poison ivy, poison oak and sumac are most common. Latex exposure can also cause skin allergy.

- Food allergies include: milk, soy, eggs, wheat, peanuts, tree nuts, sesame, fish, and shellfish.
- Penicillin is the most commonly reported drug allergy.
- Latex allergy is more common in certain occupations such as healthcare or other occupation exposed to latex.
- People with insect allergies are often allergic to bee, wasp and ant stings. As many as 100 people die each year from anaphylaxis due to insect sting.

Treatment

Your healthcare provider will discuss with you or your child treatment options which may include:

Remember that anaphylaxis require emergency medical care.

- Always talking to your provider before starting anything.
- Medications such as a metered dose inhaler or pills may be prescribed.
- Avoid Allergens.
- Carry an auto-injector of epinephrine.
- Speak with your nutritionist about what foods to avoid.
- Your provider may recommend consult with an allergist or dermatologist.

Hopefully you are well prepared to enjoy the beautiful flowers, trees, the birds and the bees safely.
Stay well.

Information obtained from the Asthma and Allergy Foundation of America.

Have you ever seen a white crow?

And then a friend/partner arrived too.

Seen on the playground in front of the church on Wednesday of Holy Week.
